2019
ANNUAL

OUR 2019 SEASON ENGAGED WITH 142,500 VISITORS ACROSS 18 WEEKS, BUILDING ON EXISTING PARTNERSHIPS, ESTABLISHING NEW ONES, AND CHAMPIONING DIVERSITY IN EVERYTHING WE DO.

Evening Standard
THEATRE AWARDS 2019

We receive no public subsidy with over 90% of our income generated from ticket sales, and yet we have maintained our lowest ticket price of £25 for seven years, increasing the number of tickets available at that price by 93%. At the same time, membership of our BREEZE scheme – where those aged 18-25 can get tickets for £10 – has increased by 37% over the past 12 months.

Opening with Thornton Wilder's Our Town, a play which celebrates what it means to be human and the bonds of community, we offered increased access to our theatre by working with local charities, notably Camden Disability Action and Age UK Camden, and introduced a relaxed performance during the run. Hansel and Gretel continued our partnership with English National Opera, building on the success of our Olivier Award nominated production of The Turn of the Screw and, through Pimlico Musical Foundation, gave 33 children from one of London's most complex communities the opportunity of appearing alongside professional singers. In A Midsummer Night's Dream, we incorporated British Sign Language in a cast which included our first deaf performer, and reintroduced BSL interpreted performances to our schedule (all productions in 2020 will include BSL interpreted performances).

Following the phenomenal success of Jesus Christ Superstar, which played to sell-out audiences at the Barbican this summer ahead of its North American tour, we continued our relationship with Tim Rice and Andrew Lloyd Webber by presenting Jamie Lloyd's innovative new staging of Evita – a production which we look forward to taking to the Barbican next summer.

Recognised for our outstanding work, this year we won three WhatsOnStage Awards for Little Shop of Horrors, including Best Musical Revival, and Evita won Best Musical in the Evening Standard Theatre Awards.

Since 2007, Regent's Park Open Air Theatre has become one of the most independently sustainable and financially successful producing theatres in the country, and so we embark on the next stage of our vision with ever-increasing artistic ambition and entrepreneurial spirit.

“THOUGHT-PROVOKING... INTRIGUING. Carpe diem is the time-honoured message – and I’d concur; grab this while you can.” Daily Telegraph

“The classic snapshot of a community is given fresh life by a youthful production. Ellen McDougall’s Wilder revival hits home with force... and underlines the play’s contemporary relevance through the diversity of her 19-strong cast.” The Guardian

“AN ELEMENTAL PLEASURE.” Daily Mail

“A moving antidote to fast-paced narratives and rampant individualism.” The Arts Desk

“FULL OF JOY AND WONDER and just creepy enough to thrill the little ones without tipping them over the edge, it's another hit for the company's fledgling partnership with English National Opera.” Metro

“Magical staging coupled with orchestral brilliance. A delight.” The Times

“AN OPERA FOR ALL AGES.” The Guardian

“Full of delightful and scary surprises. An evening of complete enchantment.” Sunday Times

“The superbly rehearsed children of the Pimlico Musical Foundation were the icing on A DELICIOUS THEATRICAL CAKE.” Bachtrack

“SPINE-TINGLINGLY GOOD.” Evening Standard

“Bewitchingly dark... laced with steampunkish glitter, grime and tattoos.” Metro

“Toxic masculinity and trippy tiffs make for a spellbinding evening, catapulting the audience into a shape-shifting, tenebrous otherworld where arachnoid fairies emerge with lunar stealth from the bushes.” Daily Telegraph

“The language is Shakespearean, but the direction is anything but puritanical, with the actors bringing a contemporary, conversational accessibility to their dialogue, whilst the fairies communicate in sign language.” CityAM

"Tim Rice and Andrew Lloyd Webber's rock opera has been revived for a new generation."

Daily Mirror

"Timothy Sheader's SLEEK, CONTEMPORARY VISION echoes through every creative element."

BroadwayWorld

"It looks incredible; it sounds incredible. Drew McOnie's edgy choreography turns the cast into a mob, whether united in juddering, convulsive devotion, or baying for blood."

Time Out

"The climactic sequence is extraordinary theatre, as Jesus is lashed, crowned and crucified amidst a musical and choreographic fury."

The Arts Desk

"Dark, disturbing and sensational... THE MOST VITAL SUPERSTAR THERE'S EVER BEEN."
